

BISONS DEFEAT COWBOYS IN OMFL CHAMPIONSHIP – GARRETT DOES NOT PLAY!

Oakville, Ontario – August 8, 2010

After leading the Atom Halton Cowboys to their first OMFL winning season (3rd place with just two losses in 9 games), their first playoff victory (over the #2 ranked Brantford Bisons) and their first appearance in the OMFL Championship game (against the Brampton Bulldogs), coach Paolo Iacovello replaced Garrett at quarterback for the team's championship game appearance against the Bulldogs.

The Cowboys lost 48-6 – their worst defeat of the season.

So no more TD's for GO GARRETT GO but Garrett finishes leading the team with 15 rushing and one passing TD for a total of 16 touchdowns and raising $20,348 for Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and Free the Children.

Thanks to everyone who pledged!

Next week people who pledged will start receiving an email summarizing Garretts' touchdown count, their pledge amount and the total amount they are donating (# of touchdowns times the pledge amount). They will then click on a direct link to the CMN hospital of their choice and the Free the Children donation portal to make their donation.

Check back next week when we announce the final couple of contest winners (silent auction for Team Canada hockey jersey, and draw for home cleaning services courtesy of "In House Cleaning Company").

Thanks again for all of your support!!
